

Globe Editorial

Assad and the Iranians are the real plotters

THE GLOBE AND MAIL

In pictures

A look at Zelinski's photos

Published Thursday, Dec. 09, 2010 7:58PM EST

Last updated Thursday, Dec. 09, 2010 8:00PM EST

Oakville native Mark Zelinski is donating 6,000 copies of his travel photography books, with proceeds going to charity

(Mark Zelinski)

Thirty-five years in the making, Governor General's Medal winner, photographer Mark Zelinski, created three remarkable editions spanning 70 countries across the seven continents of the earth. Zelinski and From The Heart Publishing have printed 6,000 hardcover books specifically to donate to charities, both locally and around the world. The three editions are: Untitled, created for illiterate children. All photos, no text; From The Field: visual story of rocks and trees, oceans and animals on seven continents; One Small Flame: Kurt Hahn's Vision of Education.